MEN GROWING BETTER, CAIRO BECOMING DECLARES GOV. FOLK

Revelations of Graft Indicate Awakening of the Moral Spirit.

BOSTON, Jan 21.-Five hundred of the leading business men of Boston, members of the Merchants' association, attended the annual dinner of the organ ization at the Hotel Somerset today and heard addresses by Gov. Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia, Gov. Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald of this city.

Gov. Guild, in extending the welcome of the commonwealth to Gov. Folk and Mayor Weaver, said:

Governor Guild's Welcome.

"Governor Gullas wetcome:
"Governors and Mayor of States and cities pass and shall pass and the memory of their titles may vanish as last year's snows, but so long as virtue and conscience control human hearts, the men shall still turn to history for the inspiration of the record of achievements, for the righteousness that exalteth a hation eternally written about the names of Joseph W. Folk and John Weaver."

Gov. Folk, in the course of his address, said: said:

Reform Idea Universal.

Reform Idea Universal.

There have been great reform movements of a political nature in days gone by, but they were merely local. The people were not awakened, thore was no constancy in the movement, no toncert of action, no organization of the forces of reform; nothing but local criticades brought on by local influences, which died with the movements that gave them birth. The present reveals a situation of brighter promise to the lovers of good government. Reform shows signs of becoming dniversal instead of local and transitory. The revolt from political oppression is rearing its hadd in city after city and State after State. A civic regeneration is going on all over the land, and its influences are extending from the domain of the public to that of the private exempting and robing into the dolugs of rasmain of the public to that of the privat conginer and probing into the doings of ras

First Breastworks Taken,

The elections of last November were but the taking of the first breastworks of the opposition. The fight must be, and will be, kept up with uncassing vigor, and the time will never come when the people can be secure of their political liberty while they rest upon their narms in idleness. The battle against civic evils will continue as long as men love their family, their home and their country. This is what civic revival means—love of country.

Men Becoming Better.

Men Becoming Better.

This rivic awakening to the necessity of etamping out the things of dishonor in public life and the things that oppress in private life, the revelation of private corruption and of private wrongdoing do not indicate a moral degradation. It does not show that men are becoming worse, but that men are becoming worse, but that men are becoming worse, but that men are becoming better. The hope for the perpetuity of a government by the people was never brighter than it is today. There will be only white lights ahead as long as the people are awake. Graft cannot be exterminated fully until special privilege are done away with and the doctrine of equal rights is recognized. It matters not whether this special privilege be ahead as long as the people are awake.

Graft cannot be exterminated fully until special privileges are done away with and the dectrine of equal rights is recognized. It matters not whether this special privilege be in the form of a tariff as arranged as to foster monopoly or a combination to control the prices of necessities, or rebates to favored shippers. Whenever a class are given a special privilege in any form whereby they can prey upon the rest of the people, that is graft and should be stopped. Some special interest is at the bottom of every graft.

Real Estate Boomers Sell Lots Almost Out to the Pyramids.

PROSPERITY OF EGYPT REALLY REMARKABLE

Rapid Advance of the Last Few Years a Matter of Wonder.

CAIRO, Jan. 21.-The prosperity of Egypt is one of the really remarkable things of the century. This prosperity has not been due solely to the extension of the railways and the increase of business on the canal-it has been pronounced along all lines except in the business of cattle-growing, where the recent plague has caused a depreciation in values, and the ravages to cotton caused by the "boll worm" in Upper Egypt. But except in these minor details even Sir Vincent Corbett, financial adviser to the Egyptian Government, says that the rapid advance in the prosperity of Egypt which characterized 1903 and 1904 has to all outward appearances, at least, been maintained.

Modern Change Progresses.

It is just thirty years ago in the Khe-It is just thirty years ago in the Khedival palace it, Cairo that Gen. Stanton, the Brilish Consul-General and the unhappy Ismall Sadyk Pasha, nicknamed "The Mufettish," then Egyptian Minister of Finance, signed the contract by which the Viceroy's shares passed into the possession of Great Britain. From that transformation the whole modern change in Egypt has whole modern change in Egypt has gradually and consistently I. It led to the bombardment of evolve4. Alexandra, the "stricken" field of Om-durman, the dramatic crisis of Fashoda, and finally the poetle denouement of the Lansdowne-Camton convention of last year.

Scarcity of Labor.

In his annual note on the budget Sir Vincent Corbett even goes on to show how the prosperity of Egypt has caused a scarcity in all labor, skilled and unskilled. He says: "I learn from the irrigation authorities that the cost of construction of earthworks has risen within the last three years by at least 60 per cent."

This boom in all things Egyptian has recently been so pronounced that Sir Vincent rounds a note of warning:

Sounds a Warning.

"With a full sense of the responsibility attaching to an expression of opinwhich cannot but have something of an ex-cathedra character, I desire to sound a note of warning to those who look on Egypt as an Eldorado for in-vestors—to speculators who hope to find here a field for money-making."

Even in the matter of real estate it is noted that real estate additions to the city of Cairo have been laid out, al-most to the foot of the Pyramids. Real estate boomers with modern methods have taken possession of the town, and many and startling have been the changes. It is possible that the appeal to the historic has a pecu-liar fascination for some speculators. but it is a remarkable fact that in-quiries from all over the world have reached Cairo regarding Egyptian real estate and mining.

In the matter of mining Sir Vincent has this to say: Mining Is Active.

The Department of Mines has been formed for the purpose of issuing mi-ning leases and licenses and generally controlling the mineral industry within the country. The extent of the regions in which ancient mining centers have been found is such as to induce the expenditure of large sums of money with in the next few years for further exof which money will be derived from sources outside the country and spent in it. The department has been placed under the charge of an inspector-general, who will be assisted in his duties by other inspectors, and a special staff of desert police."

LADY PARKER LOSES JEWELS WORTH $75,000

Scotland Yard Detective on Trail of Suspected Thief in Florida.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 - The Herald tomorrow will say: 'That Lady Parker, wife of Dr. Gilbert Parker, was robbed of $55,000 several weeks ago in the Carlton hotel, London, has been revealed in this city since the departure of a representa-tive of Scotland Yard for Palm Beach, Fla. For more than a week the London detective worked in this city, independ-ently of the Central office, visiting pawn-shops and following other trails.

Entire Collection Jewels.

"In the recent political campaign in England Lady Parker took up a temporary residence in the Cariton. She was Miss A. B. Van Tine of this city daughter of the late A. A. Van Tine and wealthy in her own right. Her jewels are well known, and on this occasion she had in a casket in her compartment all her collection.

Had Well-Dressed Caller.

A knock came to her door one more

"A knock came to her door one morning and a well-dressed man was discovered. At sight of Lady Parker he apologized profusely, saying he had made a mistake, having been called to the room of a friend.

"Little was thought of the incident and Lady Parker went to make some calls. When she returned she discovered that the case and its contents had been taken. Nothing else had been disturbed. Entrance had been obtained by key.

Detective Came Over. Detective Came Over.

"Lady Parker's description of the man who had rapped at her door caused the detective to take ship for this city. The detective authorities thought they re-ognized in it a man who has made a rep-utation as a sneak thief and hotel thief on two continents. It was learned he had sailed for New York.

Found Traces of Him. "He was not in New York when the detective arrived, but there were traces of him here and after a week's investigation a clue was found which indicated that he had gone to Florida."

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Jan. 21.—Report of the good work accomplished by the Misses Martha Shideler, Edith Phillips and Mable Williams, who have been conducting a mission Sunday-school in a tumble-down house in the poor section of the city, reacued the ears of Judge D. D. Dykeman, a retired and wealthy Logansport citizen, who at once donated a fine piece of city property, on which will be erected a substantial church mission. The young ladles began a short time ago with a little class of six children and have succeeded in working up a mission Sunday-school with a membership of more than sixty. With the increase in numbers there came a demand for larger quarters, but the means to secure them were not at hand. When the matter came to the ears of Judge Dykeman he voluntarily donated the ground to be used as a site for the erection of a suitable building.
